

Ms. OLIVIA MCIVOR

2008 INTRODUCTION

Ms. Olivia McIvor has worked with the Izzo Group for the past 7 years and brought her 21 years of human resources leadership within her. Her HR expertise combined with her spiritual background and inspirational abilities has made her a popular woman on the lecture circuit. Her research has been published by the Organizational Culture Group and used in numerous articles across North America. Her inspiring presentations have been sought by companies internationally as her research and experience in the areas of attracting and retaining employees to specific corporate cultures has been invaluable during the North American labor shortage. Companies such as the Georgia Power Company, The Good Samaritan Society, Earl's Restaurants, Benjamin Moore, the Saskatoon Health Region, and many others have learned from her inspiring knowledge. Her work continues within Education, Healthcare, Industry and Hospitality Industries internationally. She lives in Vancouver, British Columbia and is the author of "The Business of Kindness: creating workplaces where people thrive."

Please welcome Ms. Olivia McIvor.
